SECOND SUPPLEMENT

TO THE

HISTORY

OF

THE DUDLEY FAMILY.

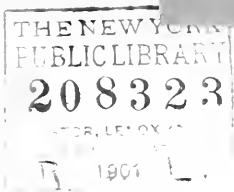

By DEAN DUDLEY.

WAKEFIELD, MASS.

PUBLISHED BY THE AUTHOR.

1901.

Copyright by Dean Dudley, 1901.

NOTICE.

---

I wish to state in this last Supplement that I have the History and Genealogy of the Dudleys bound in two volumes cloth, price $12.50. Also the first supplement bound in cloth, $2.00; in paper covers, $1.50. The Second Supplement in paper covers, $1.00.

The Memorial of the Dudley Reunion of 1892, 50 cents in paper covers. This is an appendix to the History of the Dudleys, and bound with that book.

All these are for sale separately, if any one wants particular numbers; but numbers 1 and 2 are not for sale. The numbers are $1.00 each, and contain one hundred pages each. Send to Dean Dudley for these books. I will supply them as long as I live and afterwards my daughters will supply them to patrons who send for them. Always address Dean Dudley of Wakefield, Mass., and enclose bank checks or postal orders to pay for them.

April 15, 1901.

FROM SHOPGIRL TO PEERESS.

Lady Dudley is probably the only peeress of England who has risen from the rank of a shopgirl to her present social eminence. Prior to her marriage she bore the name of Gurney, which is one of the most ancient in Norfolk. The young countess' father, however, met with business reverses, resigned his partnership in the Gurney Bank, and surrendered all his possessions for the benefit of his creditors. Mrs. Gurney opened a millinery shop in London, but met with scant success, her two daughters, who acted as assistants, ultimately becoming saleswomen in the shops of the modiste, Mme. Elise. About a year previous to Lord Dudley's marriage the now widowed Duchess of Bedford and her sister, Lady Henry Somerset, interested themselves on behalf of the two young girls, and removed them to more congenial surroundings. Rachel, the eldest, became a member of the household of the duchess, while the younger, now Lady Trowbridge, was adopted by Lady Henry Somerset. It was as the adopted daughter of the Duke and Duchess of Bedford that Rachel Gurney married young Lord Dudley.

This Lord Dudley is mentioned on page 961, History of Dudley Family. He was born May 25, 1867, and succeeded 7 May, 1885, his father, Wm. Ward, late Earl of Dudley, whose portrait faces page 776.

52 HOLLAND ROAD, KENSINGTON, W. LONDON, ENG.

Jan'y 29, 1900.

MY DEAR SIR,—I am very much interested in your "History of the Dudley Family," (a copy of which was kindly lent me recently,) my wife's mother having been a Miss Dudley, daughter of Mr. Sheldon Dudley of Roscrea. Can you supply me with a copy, or is it out of print. I can probably furnish you, if desired, with some additions to the pedigree as published in your 1888 edition which is that which I have before me. I have been making the pedigree copied from your work as complete as possible so far as my own immediate wife's relatives are concerned, and should be glad to send you a copy of the same. I am,

Yours very truly,

DEAN DUDLEY, Esq.

J. COVENTRY P' ANSON.

ADDITIONS AND CORRECTIONS.

Vol. VI. p. 691. Dana.

"Elizabeth Ellen Remington" should be Elizabeth Ellery, no Ellen and no Remington. To descent ("Ann") please add e to Ann and add Remington. Elizabeth (Ellery) Dana died Aug. 30, 1807. Her husband, Hon. Francis Dana, was son of Richard of Boston, (not Hon. nor of Cambridge.) Children:

- i. Edmund Trowbridge b. June 13, 1774, d. Aug. 12, 1776.
- ii. Francis d. Dec. 28, 1853.
- iii. Edmund Trowbridge d. May 6, 1859.
- iv. Martha Remington m. Washington Allston June 1, 1830, d. Dec. 24, 1862.
- v. Richard Henry.
- vi. Elizabeth Ellery d. Nov. 20, 1874.
- vii. Sarah Ann b. Sept. 1, 1791, d. Feb. 5, 1866.

You omitted the first Edmund. I add only the dates you did not give.

Richard H. Dana, the poet. mar. Ruth Charlotte, dau. of John Wilson Smith, (not William). Their children were:

1. Ruth Charlotte b. Feb. 28, 1814.
2. Richard Henry.

3. Edmund Trowbridge.

4. Susan b. June 8, 1820, d. Apr. 27, 1822.

His wife d. Feb. 10, 1822.

Son Richard H. Jr. d. at Rome, Italy, Jan. 6 (not 7). Children :

1. Sarah Watson mar. Walter Scott Swayne.

2. Ruth Charlotte m. Francis Ogden Lyman.

3. Elizabeth Ellery.

4. Mary Rosemond m. Henry Fearing Wild.

5. Richard Henry.

6. Angela Henrietta Channing mar. Henry Whipple Skinner.

Other children of R. H. Dana 3d, (p. 692), are :

v. Edmund Trowbridge b. Oct. 25, 1886.

vi. Delia Farley b. Oct. 2, 1889.

Vol. VI, p. 698. Oldest child of Anne (Remington) Ellery, — Elizabeth, who married Francis Dana, was b. Aug. 13, 1751, d. Aug. 30, 1807, mar. Aug. 5, 1773.

Vol. VI, p. 684. Susan, dau. of Francis Dana Channing, mar. a Higginson and one of her daughters mar. Francis Cabot. Do you care for particulars? If so, write to Miss Elizabeth Higginson, Brookline, Mass.

The son, Rev. Wm. H. Channing, also married and had children, and a daughter of his married the well-known Sir Edwin Arnold.

Rev. George Gibbs Channing, p. 684, is the right name. You gave it as Edward on p. 753. On p. 684 you omitted several of the children. You speak, p. 684, of W. E. Channing and wife as living in Concord. She died many years ago, before 1860. There are several more grandchildren and marriages among her descendants since your book was published. Are you not mistaken in calling the son, Edw. P. Channing, member of the Suffolk Bar? He is a professor of history at Harvard now.

Vol. VII, p. 771. Catherine Head, b. Oct. 9, 1858. mar. the distinguished Prof. Josiah Royce of Harvard and has 3 children.

Vol. VIII, p. 916. Steadman should be Stedman. Children of Dr. Chas. H. Stedman, p. 917, the third son <sup>3</sup>Francis Dana Stedman, d. March 30, 1868. The dau. <sup>3</sup>Lucy, b. June 1, 1847, mar. <sup>(1)</sup> John H. Stickney, and had 3 children, and m. <sup>(2)</sup> Joseph Day Snell. The sixth child, <sup>6</sup>Henry Rust Stedman, is the well-known physician and expert in mental diseases, of Brookline, Mass. He m. Mabel Weiss, another Dudley descendant (dau. of Rev. John Weiss, p. 885), and has several children, the youngest of whom is named Anne Bradstreet Stedman.

This valuable information was kindly sent me by the Dana family.

Vol. IX, p. 1042. The wife of John Whipple was Mary Fairfield, not Fiffeld.

DEAN DUDLEY :

Dear Sir,—I was told by a cousin of mine, Mr. George Dudley of Colorado, that you are compiling the genealogy of the Dudley family. I should like very much to get one of the books. If you have not them for sale will you kindly tell me where I can find them, also the price, so I can enclose the money when I give the order.

Hoping to hear from you soon, I am sincerely, yours.

JUNE 20, '98.

DEAN DUDLEY, ESQ., Montrose, Mass.

Dr Sir,—Last November you kindly replied to my letter of inquiry regarding Francis and William Dudley of N. Y. Since then I have corresponded with many of the descendents of the Eversham, N. J. Dudleys. I enclose mem., also copy of marriage license of Wm. Dudley, which may be of interest. I have examined your valuable work, but so far do not place my ancestor. I should be pleased to hear further from you on the subject and will advise further should I obtain any additional light on the subject. Yours,

W. C. DUYCKINCK.

WOLVERHAMPTON (ENGLAND) RECORD.

John Dudley, d. Apr. 10, 1746: Mary Amen, d. 1761.

Eversham, N. J. Branch. Children: Elizabeth, Francis, m. 1733, Rachel Wilkins; William, Mary, Benjamin. Francis Dudley, 1749, admitted freeman, N. Y. Wm. Dudley, 1761, admitted freeman, N. Y.

N. Y. Wills. 1774. Francis Dudley, wife Elizabeth. Children: William, John, Peter.

Marriage license.—Wm. Dudley and Mary Gauter, 1766.

Hon. Thos. H. Dudley died some years since, his daughter, Mrs. Ellie Dudley Trotter of Phil., so advised.

Elizabeth Dudley was married Dec. 27, 1787, to John Dorman*, in Presbyterian church, N. Y. She was born 1766 and died 1852, being buried in Christ churchyard, New Brunswick, N. J.

*This John Dorman I think came to this country about 1784 with his brother, Rev. Alex. Dorman, a graduate of Edinburgh University, 1792, and located in Penn.; another in Va., and another in La., making four brothers. The Dorman appear to be all well to do people.

These records are from Mr. Duyckinck.

EXTRACT COPIED FROM N. Y. GAZETTE, JULY 8, 1812.

Died on the 7th inst, William Dudley, Esq., aged 78 years, a native of England, and for many years a respectable inhabitant of this City. The friends and acquaintances of the family are invited to attend the funeral this afternoon at half past 4 from his late dwelling, No. 48 Rutgers St.

PHILLIPS, ME., March 28, 1898.

DEAR COUSIN,—I received your letter. Will take time to answer it. Am glad Cheney called to see you when he was in Wakefield. The last time I was in Boston thought I would go and see you but did not have time. I went to the Dudley reunion, did not see you there. Yes, I have a good son. He was always a good boy and is a good man. Cheney Emlin Parker was born in Kingfield, Me., June 13, 1866. After attending the common schools he fully completed the regular business course prescribed at the college, passed a satisfactory examination in all of its branches in the city of Augusta, Me., 1887. He has served as postmaster the past three years. Oct. 2, 1889, he married Miss Addie G. Turner of Newcastle, Me. They have two children, namely, Floyd Emlin, born July 20, 1890; Glidden McLellan, born Oct. 28, 1893. Brother Lucien has one child, Llewellyn Ivory, born April 29, 1896, in Freeman, Me.

Cornelius Gilbert is living. He can tell you better than I about the Gilbert family. I will send you Wm. Gilbert's obituary.

I have had several letters from Olive Dudley Chamberlin. I think if you write to her she will write and tell you about her family, also about her brothers and sisters that are living. Her mother was living a short time ago. Her address is Mrs. O. Chamberlin, Ortonville, Minn.

Alice Durrell has children but I don't remember all of their names. Her address is North Freeman, Me.

I have a good picture of brother Llewellyn that I could send you for the book if you would like to have it. He was a nice looking man and very good. I sent you his obituary.

I'm a poor letter writer: hope you will understand what I have written. When I go to Boston again think I will go and see you.

Respectfully,

MARY P. PARKER.

NORTH FREEMAN, Apr. 26, 1898.

DEAR COUSIN,—I think if you will write to Mrs. Arabella Dudley, Newport, Me., that she will send you a photo of Llewellyn. I have but one small one and would not like to spare that.

We have had another child since I wrote to you of my children, but our darling bud died on earth to blossom in heaven.

Maude Blanche, born July 5, 1885.

Victor Delmont, born Nov. 12, 1886.

Lynne Howard, born May 21, 1888.

Riley William, born Mar. 12, 1890.

Vivian Rose, born Oct. 19, 1893, and died of brain congestion Dec. 29, 1897.

Yours truly,

MRS. ALICE F. DURRELL.

then attended the city schools and Normal, and studied the profession of school teaching, which he afterward entered for three years. Thinking this work not very profitable, he began clerking in a general mercantile store of Hill City, called the Exchange Store, where he continued to clerk for seven years under different managers. His close application to business, with his pushing qualities, courteous treatment, his honest, upright and diligent work made him a favorite clerk with the customers and also with his managers. In the spring of 1896 he was elected manager of the Exchange Store, where he has since held the position with more favorable results each year. His home papers acknowledge him to be one of the best and ablest business men in the county. He was married to Miss Hattie L. Dudley, Aug. 31, 1896, daughter of Warren T.<sup>8</sup> Dudley, (John G.<sup>7</sup>, Nathaniel<sup>6</sup>, Judge John<sup>5</sup>, James<sup>4</sup>, Stephen<sup>3</sup>, Rev. Samuel,<sup>2</sup> Gov. Thomas<sup>1</sup>.)

Mrs. Hattie Lewis was born April 7th, 1873, in Manitowoc, Wis. She moved to Kansas with her parents at an early day and spent most of her time in school work until she was married. She was very quick and apt in her studies, always ranking one of the first in oratorical, elocutionary or literary work. Her grades in school were always high. For seven years she filled the profession of school teaching, teaching in the county schools, the city schools and in the Stockton academy. She spent her vacations in the Sahica university, completing many studies, after graduating with high honors from the city high school. Mr. and Mrs. Lewis have a beautiful home at Hill City, and they have a daughter Blanche Vilma, born Aug. 20, 1900.

OBITUARY.

[From MANITOWOC PILOT.]

DUDLEY. Died at Roscoe, Kansas, of consumption, Alice Josephine, wife of W. T. Dudley and daughter of the late Richard Steele of Manitowoc, Wis. She leaves a husband and 3 small children, mother, brothers and sisters to mourn their great loss. She died only as a happy Christian can die. Calling her loved ones around her she talked to them in a calm, happy and hopeful way (leaving messages for the absent ones) to comfort them. She needed no comfort other than she received from the precious Savior, to whom she went, at three o'clock Nov. 14th, 1879.

OBITUARY.

[From JUNCTION CITY TIMES.]

GEORGIA LUTHERA DUDLEY, daughter of W. T. and Alice Dudley, died at Junction City March 30th, 1893, of congestive bilious fever, after an illness of five days. She was born in New Lisbon, Wis., Jan. 12th, 1875. Her mother died when Lura was four years old. She joined the church at the age of fifteen; graduated in 1892 with an average standing of 99 per cent, became a portrait artist of superior ability, had a very even temperament, was very conscientious and was loved by all who knew her. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. John Cook of the M. E. church, and remains were interred in the Highland cemetery of Junction City, Kansas.

OBITUARY.

[From HILL CITY REVELLE.]

ALBERT GILMAN, son of W. T. and Alice Josephine Dudley, died at Hill City, Kansas, Aug. 20th, 1893, of bilious fever after an illness of three weeks. Deceased was born in Fon du Lac, Wis., Oct. 13th, 1871. Graduated in 1892 with a very high standing. Had a large circle of friends, and his burial was attended by a very large number of people. Funeral sermon was by the Rev. Ganes.

OBITUARY.

MR. JAMES HOLT of Utica was born in Brighton, Maine, Nov. 19, 1825, and passed away May 19, 1899. He was born of true New England stock. He resided in his native state until November, 1849, when he came to Wisconsin, settling near Markesan in Green Lake county. July 14, 1853, he was married to Miss T. S. Dudley. At that time he was engaged in farming and blacksmithing for a period of eight years. Four of their children were born there. The family came to Minnesota in 1861, settling in Winona county, two miles from Utica, where the last child, Walter Ernest, was born, who passed to the higher life in 1881, aged seven years. The wife, four children, Newton M., of San Francisco, a master mechanic; L. J., who lives on the old homestead; Mrs. E. L. Brown of Minneapolis, and M. F., of Sioux Falls, a master mechanic, and eleven grandchildren survive him. Mr. Holt was a warm hearted man of many Christian graces of character. Hearing Universalism in early life, he became a believer in the larger thought, his reason naturally leading him to this conclusion. His only request was that a man of liberal thought preach his funeral sermon. The services were conducted by Rev. George Crum of Owatonna. Four years ago Mr. Holt fell from the roof of the house and broke his hip, and from that time he was incapacitated for work, but was very patient and cheerful, making the best of his condition. Five weeks ago last Monday he had a severe suffocating spell, caused by dropsy of the heart. These spells continued at intervals until finally he fell asleep like a babe. This county has lost a man of sterling worth, public spirited and progressive; the community a kind friend and neighbor. His warm sympathy and generous nature attracted a host of friends about him who feel a personal loss now that he has passed on, and the family lost a sweet spirited husband, father and grandfather.     ***

ORTONVILLE, March 28, 1899.

MY DEAR COUSIN.—Have just re-read your last letter. I think if grandfather had been spared to read all your works he would have said much in praise of your perseverance and success. Grandfather is remembered. It does seem strange that all of Uncle William's children have not sent for the Supplement—in which their relatives are so well represented. Why! each of them should have one. My wish is that Annie S. D. Bates will write to you. You ask me if yo ought to give Annie D. a copy. A question hard for me to answer, not knowing what her income is. It seems that you have decided to have another Supplement, which pleases me. I can furnish you with photos for it of my husband and our two sons and daughter-in-law, equally as good as mine, which is called a very natural likeness. Then we shall want two of the Supplements. I think the eighth, ninth and tenth generations will be glad of an opportunity to patronize you. Myron, our youngest and single son, understands surveying, but in order to know more about it he is in the State University in Madison, Wis., studying civil engineering. We miss him as he has been with us over a quarter of a century, but his father and I have schooled ourselves to stand what is to be for our children's best good. Ova, our other son, and wife live near us, and he is still assistant cashier in the bank where he has worked for years. Mother and I have been worse but are better again. She says she should like to have you and your wife take a trip this way as she longs to see her old time friends and talks a great deal about them. Since she has been with me I have hunted up some of her old correspondents whom she had not heard from for years and keep up a correspondence with them on her account. You would be surprised to hear my little mother recite pieces of poetry that she has learned this winter, which we consider quite remarkable for a person who will be ninety on the 23rd of May. Wish you and mother might celebrate the day together. I just heard mother telling a friend what a smart man your father was. We are having a cold March, although the ground is only partially covered with snow, as we have had only a little during the winter; but not far from here they have had a great deal. Excuse this scrawl written in haste. Sincerely your friend and cousin.

OLIVE CHAMBERLIN.

A FIRST SETTLER FALLEN.

Passed away from his home in this village, at 1 o'clock a. m. Tuesday, June 21, 1898, Mr. Harrison Plummer Gilbert. The deceased was born in Kingfield, Me., June 10th, 1816. He was a great reader and also a constant chronicler of events, both of local, state and national importance and from his "journal" he could tell the interesting events that transpired for many years past. He was a staunch advocate of temperance and other reforms and was a stalwart Republican ever since the party was organized. In 1857 he came to this place and took for a claim the land on which is located the cemetery where he now sleeps. He afterward acquired property in the northwest part of our city known as Gilbert's addition, and has done much to assist in building up Madelia. He has been justice of the peace and town treasurer for a number of years. On the 22nd of December, 1869, he was married in Lewiston, Me., to Jennie Sturges, whom he now leaves a widow. They had two daughters. One died in infancy. The other, Lottie Blanch, graduated from our High school, married Prof. S. C. Pew, and died, leaving a son, Lloyd, who has lived with and been a solace to his grandparents. He was of a family of eleven children. Two sisters and a brother survive him. The funeral was held in the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon by the pastor, and beautiful were the floral decorations. We sympathize with the bereaved ones, who, while they mourn his departure, feel the happy assurance that he is at rest.

On the 2nd of Dec. 1898, Mrs. Chamberlin writes me "We were glad to get your good letter. Cousins seem very near to me too. I correspond with Anne and Mary, daughters of Uncle Wm. Dudley.

I was ten years old on the tenth day of May, when we left our old home in Maine on the next day.

Anna (Gilbert) Curtis left one little boy who became a very smart man, mother heard.

I do not remember as I have ever seen a relation in the West by the name of Dudley except father and his descendants.

Thirza Dudley daughter of Nathaniel son of Nathaniel and Mahala (Smith).

The second Nathaniel Smith's wife was Relief, daughter of John and Betsey Elizabeth (Savage) Clough. Mother says her own grandfather Smith died when her father was a little boy and the family were separated. He was of Scotch descent. Mother wants you to know that she thinks there is much excellent reading in your book and that she peruses it a great deal. As for me, when I am reading your book I am so engrossed that I know not where to leave off. Mother has decided to give her valuable books to me.

My husband is a native of New Hampshire.

H. P. Gilberts' daughter married a Prof. and died leaving one little boy.

On May 29th, 1898, Mrs. Olive D. Chamberlin writes me. Your good letter was a treat, as my relatives are a great deal to me. It came on one of my very poor days, when I was not able to answer it. So I sent it down for sister Matilda to answer. My father died May 21, 1876. Of his children one son, and four daughters are still living. viz:—

Warren Truman Dudley.

Thirza Smith Dudley, (Mrs. J. Holt).

Olive, (Mrs. C. A. Chamberlin).

Matilda Dudley, [Single].

Arvilla M. Dudley, [Mrs. H. W. Mowbray].

My mother's memory is very good indeed for one in her 90th year. Your life work has been a great success and will be remembered from generation to generation. You can truly feel that you have not lived in vain. We have only two sons, Ova I. and Myron E.

Mrs. Chamberlin has long been in delicate health almost unable to write. She praises her father and brother Nathaniel who are deceased. They were excellent men and honorable citizens.

This Nathaniel's children are given in the first supplement.

UTICA, WINONA CO., MINN, Aug. 10, 1898.

DEAN DUDLEY, Wakefield Mass.,

Dear Cousin,—Sister Olive informs me that you are selling your late supplement of the Dudley family, containing pictures of my father and mother, J. G. Dudley, and other well-known relatives, at one dollar. I enclose money order of $2.00 including postage for Mrs. Mabel E. Chamberlin.

Ova Irvin Chamberlin.
Myron Ellwood Chamberlin.
See Page 13 this Second Supplement.

one copy, shall probably desire more and others later. I remember of seeing you once at grandfather's when a child. You came in covered with the visible effects of the strict discipline exercised in the school-room of those days, at the hand of Caleb Pillsbury. I am now sixty-three years of age.

Possibly myself, or son, L. J. Holt may order the entire History. Wishing you success.

I remain, Yours &c.

SKETCH OF MRS. ANNE DUDLEY BATES.

Mrs. Anne Smith [Dudley] Bates was born in Kingfield, Me., Jan. 5, 1833. Her parents were Wm. King Dudley and Hannah Bishop [Pollen] Dudley. In her youth she was fond of reading. She began teaching school at 14 years of age.

In 1859 she entered the Maine State Seminary at Lewiston, and graduated July 27th, 1864, from Bates college.

Mrs. Anne Smith Bates.

She soon began Missionary work for the Free Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, and labored as teacher and missionary to the Freedmen in the Shenandoah Valley for nine years. In 1874 she married Rev. L. E. Bates, and became a kind mother to his children. She joined the Woman's Temperance Society in 1851, and has ever been an active worker in the Christian Temperance Union.

In the time of our Civil War she had agreed to go to India but rather staid among the Freedmen of the South. She has been Superintendent of schools and Trustee of colleges and an earnest Sunday school worker.

Now at 68 years of age she takes delight in good works, and lives in the sunshine of joy and peace, at Fabius, N. Y.

MR. DEAN DUDLEY, Wakefield, Mass.

Dear Sir,—I am informed that portions of your history of the Dudley family which include that of other families connected with it may be obtained of you. If that part of it, which gives a genealogy of the "Winthrop family" can be obtained separate from the volume itself I should be glad to buy it. My father was the Rev. Edward Winthrop, son of Francis Bayard Winthrop, Jr., son of Francis Bayard Winthrop, son of John Still Winthrop, son of John Winthrop, F. R. S., son of Wait Still Winthrop, son of John Winthrop [the younger] son of John Winthrop, Gov. of Massachusetts.

I give this memoranda to show to which branch of the Winthrop family I belong.

The notice I saw stated that parts containing 100 pages each might be had for one dollar. Will you kindly let me know if this is so. If I am rightly informed it is part No. 9 that I would like to buy. I remain

Yours respectfully,

MARIAN WINTHROP TAYLOR.

Aug. 12th, '98.

DEAN DUDLEY, ESQ.,

Dear Sir,—We are much interested in your work, and have enjoyed your valuable books. Please find enclosed two dollars. I wish to subscribe for the "supplement" referred to in your circular, but as your last letter has been mislaid, I cannot tell exactly what its price was. My impression is that the amount was something over a dollar. If the enclosed does not cover it please let me know. You kindly offer to engrave photographs of members of the Dudley family, if found worthy in your judgment so I enclose four, hoping they may find a place in your work. They are of my grandfather and grandmother, and my father and mother, mentioned on page 583 of Vol. I of your "history and genealogy." I do not know whether you want corrections at this late date or not, but the date of death of Lyman Dudley should be '81 instead of '75. You speak of his family as very long lived, and it might be interesting to note that he was no exception to the rule.

I have noticed that you have among the photographs of the Dudley family and connections, some pictures of representatives who are now living, so I venture to send photographs of my father and mother who are living here in Cleveland. The appearance of these photographs in your work would be a source of much pleasure to many. If however, you do not think best to insert them, will you kindly return them? I enclose postage for their return in such event, or when you have finished having them engraved if possible to return them then. If the enclosed more than covers expense of "supplement," please let the remainder assist in paying for the engraving of pictures. We would gladly pay all the expense of having them engraved, if that would assist.

With kind regards from our family and gratitude for your labors which have given pleasure and profit to all, I am sincerely yours,

DAISETTE DUDLEY STOCKING.

BOSTON MASS, July 14, 1898.

DEAR MR. DUDLEY,—I congratulate you on the supplement to the History and Genealogy of the Dudley Family, a copy of which I have received from you. You have done a good work for your kindred.

Sincerely yours

JOHN WARD DEAN.

P. S.—When you call next, I will pay you for the book.

PALMER DUDLEY.

PORTLAND, ME., Dec. 5, 1900.

Mr. Palmer Dudley, one of the oldest of our citizens, died yesterday at his home on High street, at the corner of Pleasant. Mr. Dudley has not been in active business for several years, having acquired a handsome competence in early life in the shipping and lumber business. Mr. Dudley leaves a large family, among whom is Dr. A. Palmer Dudley of New York.

ERRATA.

The portrait of Mr. Dudley, opposite page 36, first Supplement, should be called that of E. A. Dudley of Norwich, Conn., not of Amos E. Dudley of New Haven. Mr. E. A. Dudley's ancestor was named Deailey, not Dudley—so he does not come into the Dudley Genealogy.

Page 79, 22nd line, Charles Prescott Dow should be Frank Prescott Dow. This refers to the First Supplement.
